INTERESTING OIL NOTES

The Lee-Kent Oil Co., of Paris, has "spudded in" at their No. 4 well on the Popular Thicket tract in Lee county.

RAILWAY SIGNALMEN MEET

Nineteen members and officers were present at the regular monthly meeting of Paris Lodge No. 12, Brotherhood of Railway Signalmen, held at the K. of P. Hall, at the corner of Main and Third streets. Four new members were initiated, after which a substantial luncheon was served in the dining hall. After luncheon, Mr. R. D. Leet, of Louisville, gave a very interesting talk on matters of interest to the order. The next meeting will be held in September.

OILING COUNTY ROADS.

The big new McKinney oiling machine which was recently purchased by the county as an adjunct to the road-building machinery of the county, has been busy this week, spreading oil on the highways. The work of oiling was started on the North Middletown pike, and will continue until all the pikes in the county have been given a heavy coating of the preservative oil. The oil is mixed with gravel by the machine, making an effective binder for retaining the oil on the surface.

COUNTY SCHOOLS TO OPEN.

The schools of Bourbon county will open for the fall and winter term on next Monday, September 1, at eight o'clock a. m. The County Teachers' Institute will be held on the following Monday, September 8, at 8:30 a. m.

INSTALLING NEW ELEVATOR

A new passenger elevator of the latest modern construction is being installed in the Masonic Temple. The new carrier will be operated by electricity. It is expected to be completed and in operation by the early part of the coming week.

SPECIAL REGISTRATION

A special registration will be conducted in the voting precincts, in Paris, Tuesday, Sept. 2, for the benefit of those who did not register in time for the primary election, and who desire to vote in the turnpike election on September 6.

WAR DEPARTMENT TO ESTABLISH RETAIL STORES.

Retail stores for the sale of all commodities included in the surplus stock of the War Department will be established September 25, it was announced Wednesday. The stores will be located in depot centers and large cities will accept and fill mail orders. Continued purchases by the department of certain necessities, so those stores may be continued indefinitely as a part of the government's campaign against the high cost of living is understood to be under consideration.

The prices on all commodities offered for sale will be so fixed as to prevent discrimination between those who buy over the counter and those who purchase by mail. Catalogues quoting the prices and giving the location of all stores are being prepared and will be available at all post-offices.

A FEW MORE LEFT.

We are offering some attractive prices on all Summer suits, hats, etc. Men who know are taking advantage of these values. Better not wait too long.
